

Participant Code of Conduct

Cooperation

You will cooperate with our Group Director and honor rules that they set for you (e.g, curfews, punctuality, behavior on flights, in hotels or restaurants).

Buddy Up

Outside your hotel, at all times, you will accompany at least one other group member.

Personal Appearance

You will dress and act appropriately at all times and be sensitive to the impression you are conveying in a culture other than your own; you will refrain from acquiring any tattoo or body piercing.

Prohibited Substances

You will not accept, transport, or use alcohol, tobacco, or drugs.

Behavior

You will refrain from romantic or sexual involvement of any kind.

Motorized Vehicles

You will not operate any motorized vehicle, or be a passenger on vehicle operated by another participant.

Penalty

If our Group Director determines that your conduct is detrimental to the trip you will be separated from the trip. This means you will be sent home as soon as possible and restricted to your hotel room with dedicated hotel security in the interim. An administrative fee of $200 will be charged on top of all associated travel expenses. All related costs - which typically include private transport to the nearest airport in the company of a chaperone and flights to your departure airport - are at your expense (or your Parent/Guardian as appropriate). Details of any Code of Conduct breach are reported to the Administration Offices of your school.

Travel Insurance

In most cases breaking the code of conduct will void your comprehensive insurance policy. For example, if your actions while breaking the code of conduct cause injury which requires medical attention, the related medical expenses will not be covered by your comprehensive insurance policy.
